

Petition.

from the said trusteeship, or if on the petition to said court of any creditor of such insolvent debtor, setting forth such or any other ground as aforesaid, and the answer of the trustee or evidence taken as in cases in equity, as usual being considered, it shall appear proper to the court to discharge from the trusteeship, any trustee or trustees aforesaid, the said county court may discharge as aforesaid, such trustee or trustees, and appoint a trustee or trustees in his or their place; requiring, however, and taking bond of such new trustee or trustees with such condition, and in such form and penalty as the court may direct, to the state of Maryland, for the faithful performance of said new trustee or trustees' trust aforesaid; Provided however, that nothing herein contained shall, after such discharge, be construed to prevent such court by order on petition or otherwise, and attachment or execution, from enforcing the delivery or payment of such new trustee or trustees by the discharged trustee or trustees aforesaid, of any moneys, securities, or property which said discharged trustee or trustees shall be accountable for as such trustee or trustees, of any remedy that without the discharge aforesaid might have been had upon the bond or bonds in reference to said trust of such discharged trustee or trustees, and their respective securities.

Proviso.

AN additional SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act for the despatch of Business in Baltimore County Court.—1833, ch. 173.

Re-enacted by 1834, ch. 211, sec. 7, and by 1834, ch. 233, sec. 7, except 9th section.

Insolvent
fee payable
on application.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the fee of one dollar provided by the fifth section of the act, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty, chapter one hundred and fifty-nine, to be paid by every insolvent debtor, residing in the city of Baltimore, on the day limited for his appearance before Baltimore county court for a final hearing, shall be paid by such insolvent debtor to the commissioners of insolvent debtors for the city and county of Baltimore, at the time of such insolvent debtor's filing his petition for the benefit of the insolvent laws, instead of the day limited for his appearance for final hearing as aforesaid; and it shall be the duty of said commissioners to pay the same to the clerk of Baltimore county court, who shall account for and pay over the same in the same manner, and under like liability of his bond as prescribed in reference to the fees mentioned in said fifth section; and there shall also be paid to said commissioners upon each petition of an insolvent debtor, for an extension of the time of his appearance the sum of fifty cents, to be paid by them to the said clerk, who shall, in manner and under the liability aforesaid, pay over and account for the same; and said

Payment
over.

Fee for extension of time.
Payment
over.